WBS LESSONS BEING UPDATED FOR ESV TRANSLATION

World Bible School has always aimed at providing strong study materials in solid translations to give you the ability to share Jesus with virtually anyone in the world. WBS lessons originally used the American Standard Version for scripture quotes contained in the lessons. In the early 90's we switched to the New International Version (1984 revision). We are now making another version change, this time to the English Standard Version (ESV). The ESV has proven to be a reliable translation based on the most current source documents, and we are pleased to announce that starting this summer Master Series booklets will be printed and distributed with the Scripture quotes and commentary in the ESV.

We will begin the conversion process by reprinting the first five booklets (The Way, God Has Spoken, This is Good News, Knowing Jesus, and Born of Water and Spirit) in July. Then we will work to complete the conversion of the last two booklets (The Family of God and Live a Life of Love), with the intent of printing them with ESV Scripture quotes in December. You will begin to see the updated booklets as you reorder materials and as our remaining stock of NIV-based materials is exhausted. (We also plan to update the Master Series online lessons to ESV by the end of this year.)

Finally, we currently offer both ESV Bibles and New Testaments for sale, and are getting ready to offer a custom-printed ESV Bible which will include a topical index and a Guide to New Testament Christianity, both invaluable study aids for your WBS students. We hope to have the new custom printed ESV Bible in stock and available for sale late this year.

MAIL ON THE WAY!

We received word on 16 June that 59 pounds of mail is on the way to us from Malawi. This is the largest shipment of Malawi mail we've seen in several years. Hopefully you will have lessons in this batch!
